Resolution Honoring Wisconsinites that served in The Battle of Gettysburg

July 1-3 2013 marks the 150th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg

The Battle of Gettysburg was fought July 1-3, 1863 outside the town of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania between Union and Confederate soldiers during America's Civil War; and Wisconsin soldiers played an integral role in The Battle of Gettysburg which was the turning point of the Civil War, stopping confederate soldiers from gaining northern territory. This pivotal battle put Union soldiers ahead and secured our nation's history as we know it today.

Wisconsin troops were the first Union soldiers to face Confederate troops near Gettysburg on the first day of battle. The brave men of the 2nd Wisconsin Infantry were at the very front lines of battle and immediately lost a third of their men.

The 2nd, 6th and 7th Wisconsin Infantry regiments, known as The Iron Brigade, were our brave soldiers who were the first to face Confederate troops near Gettysburg on the morning of July 1, 1863. The Iron Brigade lost a total of 578 over the course of the battle.

The 26th Wisconsin Infantry also fought throughout the first day and lost more than 210 of its men.

The 3rd and 5th Wisconsin Infantry regiments also bravely fought but arrived late in the battle.

Hi Steve,

Senator Cowles would like to do a resolution honoring Wisconsinites that served in The Battle of Gettysburg. Attached is a word document I have come up with to summarize what we would like the resolution to reflect. I found the information from The Wisconsin State Historical Societies website:
<http://www.wisconsinhistory.org/highlights/archives/2013/07/gettysburg.asp>

If you need further information please let me know. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Anna Watson
Office of State Senator Rob Cowles
